DRAFT

Mrs.

Dear Ms. Harrison:

MR DEEVER HAS FWD^{to me} YOUR

I received your letter noting the comment made to your attorney by a staff member at the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, and requesting that the White House intervene in your case pending before the Commission. I very much appreciate your bringing the matter to my attention. I hope that the comment, as conveyed to you and as appeared in your letter, was not made by the General Counsel, or that if it was, it can be attributed to an innocent misunderstanding between the two parties to the telephone conversation. In either event, I sincerely regret that the incident has undermined your confidence in the public officials charged in the first instance with enforcement of laws relating to equal employment opportunity. Needless to say, confidence in Government officials is essential if Government is to discharge properly its obligations to the public, which it serves. Every effort should be directed toward securing and fostering that confidence.

With respect to your request that the White House intervene on your behalf, I am afraid that such intervention is prohibited by our standards of conduct. Members of the White House staff may not contact an agency that performs regulatory or adjudicative functions, such as the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, concerning any particular matter pending before that agency, when to do so might imply a request for preferential treatment or the use of political influence in the decision-making process. The purposes of this general policy are to avoid even the appearance of impropriety by members of our staff and to preserve the independence and integrity of the regulatory and adjudicative processes.

I am sorry that I could not be of more assistance at this time, but again, I do appreciate your letter.

Sincerely,

Michael R. Deaver
Deputy Chief of Staff

Mrs.

MEMORANDUM FOR FRED F. FIELDING

FROM:

J. MICHAEL LUTTIG JML

SUBJECT:

Correspondence from Ann Harrison

Michael Deaver's office asked that you prepare a draft response to Ann Harrison, who wrote Deaver to request that the White House intervene on her behalf in a case pending before the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. (At first, because of reference to the TRO, I thought it was pending before a federal court, but decided upon further reading that it still is a matter within the Commission's jurisdiction.)

Attached for your review is a draft for Deaver's signature and a memorandum of transmittal for yours.
